

Signature Assignment for TRS # 1 & 3

Course: 211 Old Testament
Instructor: Dr. Benjamin Winter
Assignment Title: "Troubling Theological Texts"
Assignment ID: (To be assigned)

Outcomes to be Assessed: TRS/BA/1 - Articulate the basic doctrines, traditions, and scriptural interpretations of the Church.

TRS/BA/3 - Develop attitudes and skills necessary for ecumenical, interreligious, intercultural, and secular dialogue in mission.

On Tuesday, 2/25/2020, Benjamin Winter wrote a paper in which you analyze one of these different texts and present the results of your research to the class—these skills are necessary for ecumenical, interreligious, intercultural, and secular dialogue in mission (TRS/BA/3).

Your research paper should be approximately eight pages long and employ a minimum of four scholarly sources. Your presentation should be no longer than ten minutes in length and must use at least three slides. The paper and presentation should be organized as follows:

- (1) State the problem
(Why is this text so troubling?)
- (2) Explain the cultural context
(How was this text understood when it was written?)
- (3) Explain the theological context
(How ought this text to be understood now?)
- (4) Conclusion
(Restate the problem and summarize what you have learned.)

Paper (Written Communication VALUE Rubric)

1. Context and Purpose for Writing: Students will demonstrate awareness of the implied audience for this project, namely, a person who is struggling to